How solar cables will help India meet its renewable energy goals

Nowadays, cable manufacturers are using high-tech mechanisms, technologies such as e-beam cross-linking, and halogen-free materials.

The rising growing and rising awareness about clean energy's importance is be- come more prominent. The government has re- ported a new target of setting up India's National Mission on Target of Grid of 2000 MW Solar Power Projects. In addition, solar energy has taken a central place in the country's National Action Plan. Consistently, India is present in the National Mission on Solar to be a vital program a government-backed initiative and the rise in so-

COULD MOTHER-IN-LAW BE THE NEXT BIG THING IN PUBLISHING?

Hemant K Mehta

There is evidently a huge interest in stories related to mothers-in-law, in India, but oddly enough, it appears confined to the screen. Before Madam Cressida, the nifty mother-in-law that Milena Magnini portrayed, the innocent duchess in the TV series, Downton Abbey, was frequently in cinema of the late 1980s and the early '90s. Lalita Pawar with her acting skills and ability to be the star performer in such roles. The mother-in-law role is being well-covered in the last decade in television on high level positions.

China sends youngest-ever astronaut crew to Tiangong space station

China has launched a new mission to its Tiangong space station, sending a crew of three astronauts on a mission that will last for several months. The crew consists of two experienced astronauts and one rookie, who will conduct experiments and repairs on the space station. This is the second crew to be sent to the space station, and it marks a significant step forward in China's space program. The mission also coincides with the birthday of the universe, with the Tiangong space station expected to be in orbit for several years. The mission is seen as a significant milestone in China's space exploration efforts, and it is expected to further enhance China's position as a major player in the global space race.

WINTER IS COMING!

With close to a month and half left for winters, it’s imperative that you decide on your style in advance and start taking care of your toes too. While the coldness and chill in the weather can only make us love winter, it’s also time to make it suitable to breakages, split ends, and dryness as white un-adorable flakes of dandruff are also an eye sore. It’s essential to focus on our mums so that they are easy to manage and look beautiful as ever. While oiling and enriching your hair with the natural and herbal elements are important— you can ramp it up by your hair game by incorporating conditioning and moisturizing products in your hair care routine.

Hair care specialist and manager at Plum – Neha Pandher says “It is time to break free from the daily routine of setting your hair using a conventional tool while remaining under-stated make it appealing for the festive season. Parents can play with a wider range of colors, covering soft pink, lavender, baby blue, mint green, maroon, and many more. The light colors can really accentuate the look of the kids when combined with deliberate embroidery designs. Choosing comfortable, easy-to-wear embellishments with subdued hues of lavender, pink or blue can really complement the other accessories and appear as quite striking. They should be semi-shiny blend of elegance with ease for allowing the young ones to enjoy both comfort and style. Choosing breathable fabrics made of light weight and soft materials can work wonders for kids. While creating your statement, their clothes will not come in the way of your fun and recreation.

4. STYLE THAT RESONATES WITH THE WEATHER

Generally, the start of the festive season is marked by a transition in the weather conditions. Considering that the weather at this time of the year is quite unpredictable, it is recommended that parents dress their children according to the weather conditions. They should choose the outfits that capture the essence of festive garb while not compromising the health of the child. Therefore, pants or leggings that only add depth to the outfit but also ensure kids are prepared for any weather should be incorporated. They should be semi-shiny blend of elegance with ease for allowing the young ones to enjoy both comfort and style. Choosing breathable fabrics made of lightweight and soft materials can work wonders for kids. While creating your statement, their clothes will not come in the way of your fun and recreation.

5. ACCESSORIZE FOR A MESMERIZING LOOK

For kids who love to express their personality and creativity, accessories are a great way to be stylish. Whether it’s scarf, necklace, bracelet, earring, or pendant, accessories can add some flair and fun to any festive look. It helps in personalizing the outfit and giving it a unique touch. Depending on the child’s choice, such as gold and silver, they should choose the accessories that suit the child best. It is also recommended that parents select the accessories that go well with their child’s clothes. Babar Azam has proved himself as a valuable asset to the team, and his return to the fold is expected to boost the morale of the players.

BARRHAR’S HOPE FOR SEMI-FINALS

Following this loss, England fans are demanding a change in the team management. The English cricket team has a tough task ahead, as they need to secure four wins from their remaining five matches to have a chance of reaching the semifinals.

THINGS TO COME

Netherlands coach Ryan Cook admitted their dream of reaching the semifinals in this World Cup looks a bit distant. This follows England’s exit from the tournament, which left the Dutch team at 9th position on the points table, needing at least four wins from their last five matches to have a chance of qualifying for the top four, but their team faced a disappointing loss in the match at the MA Chidambaram Stadium in Chennai.
